

Site Rental at the Moravian Historical Society

Sitting on a 3-acre property in the heart of downtown historic Nazareth, the Moravian Historical Society offers the perfect setting to host an intimate outdoor event. Dozens of hundred-year-old trees overlook the Whitefield House and the Gray Cottage, which are both on the National Register of Historic Places. It is a one-of-a-kind destination sure to impress your discerning guests!

This 18th-century site offers a stunning and unique setting for any event, from weddings to corporate retreats. You and your guests will love the historic charm of the Moravian Historical Society!

Reserving the Moravian Historical Society
